

Hard Light Love (Acoustic Version)

Music and Lyrics by Scott Agster

INTRO

VERSE

*She's standing there all a-shimmering.
Her eyes look through my soul. aaa.
How can this be a holo? What life with her will follow?
Is she free, to be loved by me? Light me up.
She's programmed by me, but all I can see,
Is my beautiful hard light love.*

PRECHORUS (INSTRUMENTAL)

CHORUS

*My girl's made up of sunshine and quantum fields.
Her soul is a program, that's made of me.
Is she just a reflection?
Or can she decide to love me on her own?
Is she my hard light lover?*

VERSE

*I speak and then she appears to me,
Like no time passed at all. aaa.
Does she surpass the tech-no? Or is she just an echo?
Is she free, to be loved by me? Light me up.
She's programmed by me, but all I can see,
Is my beautiful hard light love.*

CHORUS

*My girl's made up of sunshine and quantum fields.
Her soul is a program, that's made of me.
Is she just a reflection?
Or can she decide to love me on her own?
Is she my hard light lover?*
